

WORLD OF RADIO #1068, produced February 7, 2001 by Glenn Hauser

*Standard disclaimer

*RFPI testing new 7450 instead of 7480; reports wanted, at 0000-0800 including resumption of our [suspended] broadcasts; 15049 off but may return on 15065;

see <http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/wormassw.html>

*See our new page linking to all our audio storage sites, summaries: <http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/Audiomid.html>

*Excellent new portal <http://www.PublicRadioFan.com> heartily recommended for easy listening to webcasts, station sites

*W-BACH adding in April a classical FM station for Bar Harbor, Maine

*PBS stations in Long Island, NY plan merger

*Public TV via cable may not be multi-channel once digital, thanks to FCC regulation

*DirecTV wipes out bootleggers' smart H-cards, ``GAME OVER``; see <http://www.hackHU.com>

*SCTV time on NBC an hour later than given last week; feel guilty while watching as cast members get no residuals from NBC

*WBCQ starts regular service on 17495, including music, merriment and fun on Saturday afternoons only from Complex Variables Studio

*WWCR promoting service to Japan on 7435 thanks to rhombic sidelobe; why WWCR likes rhombics. Usage of 2390 reduced from next season

*You have now heard at least half of WOR 1068, P O Box 1684, Enid OK 73702 USA; or wghauser@hotmail.com Website for our schedules, DX Listening Digest, Nets to You, DX program schedule, much more: <http://www.angelfire.com/ok/worldofradio/>

*Paul Harvey News and Comment gets early airing on WFLA 25 MHz

*CBC and RCI special week: Troubled Waters, Feb 11-17 on several different programs; <http://www.cbc.ca/water>

*R. Sweden well heard via Sackville, but gap with direct frequency varies, so must be playing pre-recorded tapes; WRN feed used, and Swedish has priority once feed for it established

*Juelich, Germany, experimental relays of WYFR Feb 12-25 to Africa

*BBCWS website redesigned; to get program schedule displayed you have to enter your ``nearest city``; no good on lynx text-based browsers, so old format still available: see DXLD 1-013; review by Richard Cuff in DXLD 1-014

*BBCWS preview: Essential Guide to the XXI Century: Goodbye Village, Hello City for five weeks

*BBCWS to Africa, Story of Africa, best chance for North America

*Another go at Israel's English schedule, not including alternates

*R. Hurriah about to launch clandestine programming into Iraq from Kurdistan, overtly US-supported; see DXLD 1-013; Kuwait MW otherwise occupied

*Kurdistan SW target list:

<http://www.clandestineradio.com/martin/crw-kurd.html>

*R. Bopeshawa clandestine to Kurdistan very amateurish so far

*R. Pakistan's new frequencies at 0800 including a bit of English
*All India Radio sent E-mail referring to earthquake special Internet Helpline via <http://www.allindiaradio.com>
*Jeff Kadet reports on his month visiting Lao; see DXLD 1-017 soon
*South Korea still has numbers station to the North
*From <http://sat-nd.com/topics/worldspace.htm> the primary backers of WorldSpace finally identified as Sa'udi billionaires; ramifications for US satellite broadcasting. See DXLD 1-016
*V. of Hope, Sudanese clandestine somehow heard via Bonaire
*R. Nacional del Paraguay missing from 9 MHz
*Yucatan SW station back on air, Grupo RASA, relaying different stations
*V. of Guyana Hindu broadcast wiped out by Christians at WYFR
*RFI on 2m AM [not FM as I said] in Venezuela computed to be external mixing between TV video channel and SW from France;
see DXLDs 1-013 through 017 under France [non]
*Propagation outlook from Boulder Feb 6; flux range 180-155-170
*You have now heard over 99% of WOR 1068; Glenn Hauser, here, inviting you to hear me again next week #####